SEACREW

Sea Crew

If not us, then who – the 8 men of the Sea Crew.

They are ready for the future, ready to master the tasks before them with determination, vigor, confidence and foresight.

Anyone would be happy to place their trust in them.

The men of the Sea Crew reply to „Coram iudice et in alto mare in manu dei soli sumus“ * with a grin and the words, “Luckily we are here, at least on the high seas“

*Before the courts and on the high seas, we are in God’s hands
